

VCE Food and Technology curriculum support material

Orders are now open! Once again Home Economics Victoria is leading the way in teacher support material, with a brand new series for VCE Food and Technology. These CD ROM publications will save you endless hours of preparation and extend your students' exploration and understanding of the study design. Written by a team of practising and experienced teachers, all areas of study and learning outcomes of the new VCAA study design are covered in detail. These outstanding resources include guidelines and notes for students and teachers and far-ranging support for learning and assessment including design briefs, production ideas, ICT activities, media articles, and tasks for extension and revision.

Units 1 and 3 launched at our 2010 Annual Conference on Monday 29 November

Units 2 and 4 available 2010
